Our £99 Travel Promo Package

Who we are

Part of the CannySites.com network, we launched in 2009. Our new-look, responsive site - at holidayandtraveldirectory.co.uk - went live in February 2015

Our aim is to inform, inspire and entertain UK travel lovers - helping them plan their holidays and days out, whether they're going to Bournemouth or Borneo

We combine a searchable, browsable directory with lots of original, shareable, chatty content - like offers, tips, and details of places we like

And you can be a part of it! Designed to be affordable for small businesses, our £99 Travel Promo Package effectively showcases what you offer to our readers - on our website, Twitter and Facebook

What you get with our £99 package

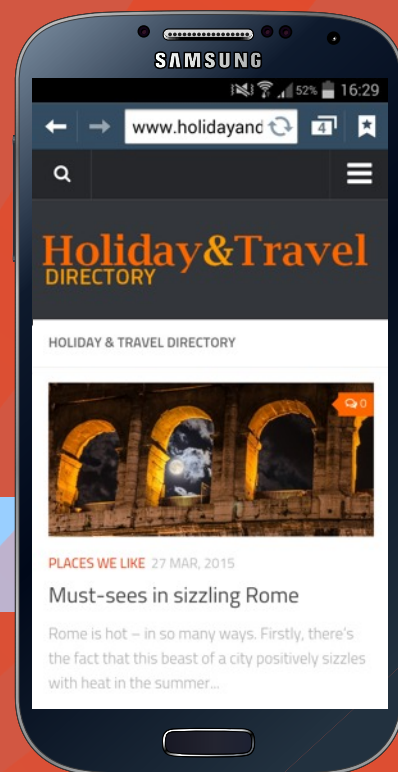

A 400-word illustrated article about and linking to your business, written by us, and published permanently on the Holiday & Travel Directory website

The article shared to our 800 Twitter followers and Facebook fans

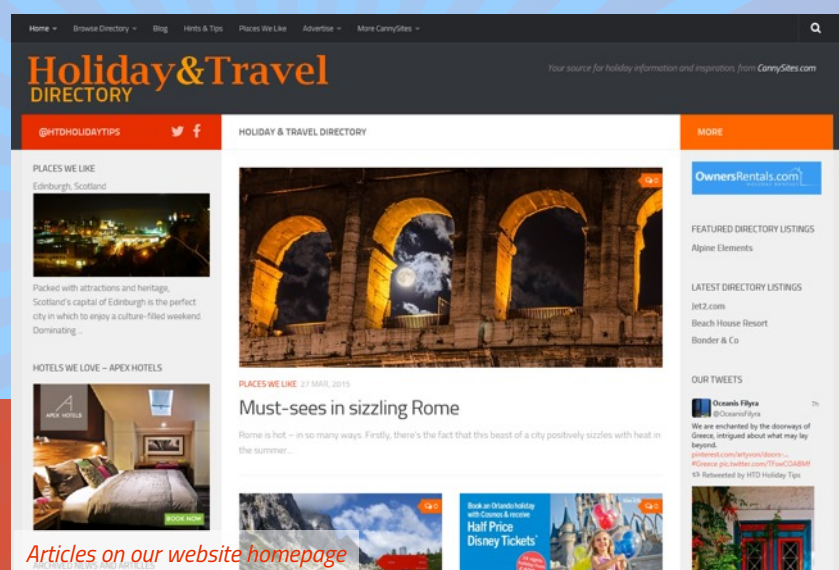

A free 1-year Standard Directory Listing on the website (subsequently £29/year, if you choose to renew it)

Occasional shout-outs and mentions from HTDHolidayTips on Twitter and Facebook throughout the first year

10% discount on any CannyInsights.com consultancy services in the first year, such as web copywriting, customer surveys, market research, or social media training and support
